NEWS AND VIEWS...

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Hopefully it won't be too noticeable but if this paper seems a little different this week it could be because my wife, Barbara, had a freak accident Sunday and we are having to get the paper out without her services.

While the rest of us can handle the production and take care of all the major things, when we have to, it is Barbara that takes care of all the little details. She is the one that catches most of the spelling errors and knows the spelling on the difficult names. She is the one everyone depends on to write things the way they are supposed to be written.

So you may have to bear with us until we can get her back on the job.

That freak accident that has her laid up? She broke her leg.

As many of you probably know, Barbara and I are motorcycle riders and to those who don't share this pleasurable sport the words motorcycle and accident probably go together. But really, this was one of those freak things that just seem to happen.

Barbara and I ride from 10,000 to 15,000 miles a year on our bikes. Barbara has ridden through the mountains of New Mexico, the streets of Dallas in rush hour traffic and this summer we traveled over 2,700 miles on our vacation.

But Sunday afternoon after the Cowboy game a number of us got together to ride. When Barbara stopped at the stop light in downtown Hamlin, she put her foot down and it either slipped or she turned her ankle. She fell over and snapped both bones in her right leg. The bike didn't fall on her and crush her leg, she just somehow bent her leg wrong and snapped the bones.

As this is being written we do not know how long she will be off the job, but knowing her it won't be very long even if she has to set up office at home.

This weekend is homecoming time again for Hamlin exes and we join in extending a special welcome to all of the visiting ex-students. We hope all of you have a pleasant visit here this weekend.

According to a California CPA: If you count back one billion seconds in time, you would be in 1945. If you count back a billion minutes, you'd be back at the time Christ was

Police Dept. Making Effort To Enforce Dog Ordinance

Within the past several weeks the Hamlin Police Department has launched a major effort to enforce the dog and cat ordinance that was passed by the city council during their April meeting.

A large number of dogs has been observed running at large and tickets have been issued by the department, according to Chief Ed Wheat.

One of the main provisions of the ordinance, as passed by the council, is that "No person owning, keeping, harboring, or having custody of any dog or cat shall permit such dog or cat to run at large at any time." Any dog or cat found in the city running at large is declared to be a nuisance and shall be impounded.

The ordinance provides for a fee for animals that are impounded and fines for violations of the ordinance.

Chief Wheat said that most of those tickets that have been issued for the violation of the ordinance have been paid. But some people have not appeared before the City Court as required.

City Judge Loyd Burkhart said this week, "if you have a ticket and you feel like it is not justified, come in to see me and explain it." He said he does not want to issue a "Notice to appear" unless it is necessary.

COVER FOR STONEWALL HISTORY
... county history being compiled

Work Underway On Stonewall History

Aspermont—The Stonewall County Historical Society is making plans to compile a book of the history of Stonewall County. The group held a meeting recently with a representative of Craftsman Printers, Inc., a division of Taylor Publishing Company, to formulate plans for preparing the book.

The book will include local family histories, communities, churches, organizations, educational units, historical landmarks and the development of the county with the opening of trails, roads and railroads.

The cover of the book will feature the same emblem as the one used for the Bi-Centennial-Centennial medallions last year. The emblem was designed by Bonnie McDowell.

The book will sell on a pre-sale basis of $25, plus tax and postage if it is to be mailed.

There will be no charge for having a family's history included and there is no limit to the length of time a family has lived in the county. The present estimate is that the book will contain about 300 pages, but the more books sold, the more pages that will be available.

A spokesman for the Society said that the book was not just for families who have lived here the longest, but is for all families, even those who have just moved to the county. "If this is a family's home it would be interesting to know why they chose our county," they said.

"If you are presently living in Stonewall County or have lived here previously, we need and want your family biography, as the history of the county will only be complete to the extent that we all participate," the spokesman said.

The book is a county wide effort and many people will be asked to help. Anyone interested in helping with the project or needing more information are asked to call Buddy McNutt, 989-3362; Bonnie McDowell, 989-2602; or Marjory Lott, 989-2935.

More information will become available as the book progresses.

Theatre Group Being Formed In Stamford

All following meetings will be held on the first Thursday night of each month. At the Nov. 3 meeting, the group will announce the first of two plays. Open auditions will be held for all productions.

Favorite Recipes

by Barbara Craig

This space this week is being used for a news release from Texas A&M University on make-ahead "Master Mix" for the homemaker that wants to save time and money.

Marilyn Haggard, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says that any kitchen is a bakery in minutes with homemade "Master Mix."

"Master Mix" can create numerous breakfast and dessert items—from luscious chocolate cake to light, fluffy pancakes and biscuits or even gingerbread squares, because each recipe calls for just a few extra ingredients without extra time-consuming steps, the specialist says.

MASTER MIX
5 pounds unsifted flour (approx. 14½ cups)
2½ cups dry milk solids
¾ cup double-acting baking powder
3 tablespoons salt
2 tablespoons cream of tartar
½ cup sugar
2 pounds vegetable shortening (approx. 4 two-thirds cups)

Stir baking powder, salt, cream of tartar, dry milk solids and sugar into unsifted flour. Then sift all together. Cut shortening into above until mix looks like cornmeal. PLACE IN A TIGHTLY COVERED CONTAINER. Store at room temperature. Yield 29 cups of mix—enough to make about one recipe of each product given below.

YELLOW OR CHOCOLATE CAKE
Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Measure 3 cups mix, ½ cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup water, and one teaspoon vanilla—and, for chocolate cake, ½ cup cocoa. Blend sugar into mix. Beat egg and water and add half to mix. Beat 2 minutes. Add remaining dry ingredients and beat another 2 minutes. Place in two 8-inch well-oiled and floured pans. Bake for 25 minutes.

BISCUITS
Combine 3 cups mix and ¾ cup water. Blend, knead 10 strokes. Bake at 450 degrees F. for 10 minutes. Yield: one and a half dozen biscuits.

DROP COOKIES
Combine 2 cups mix, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, one-third cup water, 1 teaspoon vanilla and ½ cup nuts or chocolate bits. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 10-12 minutes. Yield: 4 dozen cookies.

WAFFLES
Measure 3 cups mix, 1 egg and 1½ cups water. Blend well. Yield: 6 waffles.

GINGERBREAD
Measure 2 cups mix, ¼ cup sugar, 1 egg, ½ cup water, ½ cup molasses, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon ginger and ½ teaspoon cloves. Blend egg, water and molasses. Blend into dry ingredients. Place in well-greased and floured 8"x8" pan. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 40 minutes.

FROM THE FILES ...

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(October 28, 1927)
Next Tuesday all mail routes out of Hamlin will undergo considerable revision. No longer will we have routes A, B and C, but Tuesday, Nov. 1, it will be routes 1, 2, 3 and 4, all motor routes.
At first there will be some little confusion, but in a few days every piece of mail will find its way to the proper box. Hamlin office is getting a new route and when it goes into effect it will enable the free delivery to the rural people to reach practically every farm home in the Hamlin trade territory. The four routes will cover 228.59 miles. Considering the closeness of our neighboring towns, Hamlin will probably have the longest and most thoroughly covered rural mail territory for any town its size in Texas. Other towns have more routes, but conditions for them are different. They have a thinly settled country while Hamlin community is heavily settled.
Report cards were given out Thursday, Oct. 20, for the first six weeks records. These cards should receive more than casual interest on the part of the parents. They indicate the day of the week and the date of the month a pupil is tardy or absent, as well as the grades made in each subject, including behavior.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(October 24, 1957)
Reorganization of a Hamlin Chamber of Commerce—or rather the organization of a civic group to replace the CC—was scheduled this week under the sponsorship of the Hamlin Rotary and Lions Clubs.
First formal meeting for the reactivation of a civic group with community-wide scope was scheduled at a joint meeting of the Rotary and Lions Clubs at the Oil Mill guest house.
A planning committee named several days ago by presidents of the two service clubs was to make reports on the past work of a Chamber of Commerce, pressing needs and projects that now demand action of a community organization, suggestion of a new name and setting of a budget for the proposed unit.
J. C. Turner, Hamlin attorney, was elected president of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital Association at the annual business meeting of the directors of the unit Sunday afternoon. He replaced W. L. Fletcher Jr. who has moved to Abilene.
The directors' meeting followed the annual stockholders' meeting at the Hamlin High School auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Secretary Patterson said the number of stockholders attending the session was disappointing.
Financial and other reports were made at the meeting, the condition of the unit being reported good in face of the recent building program at the hospital which required more money than was anticipated.

TEN YEARS AGO
(October 26, 1967)
The Magazine and Newspaper Drive sponsored by the Elementary Parent-Teachers Association ended Monday with Velanne Rowland being the top junior high salesman. She earned a hair dryer as a prize and is eligible to enter a contest for a trip being given by the Quality School Plan.
Winner in the elementary building in sales of the Hamlin Herald were Mrs. Earl Brown's room 5C and Miss Maggie Seymore's room 5B.
The Pied Pipers will be shooting for the big one this week when they take on the Indians in Haskell Friday night. Both teams will be carrying perfect records into the contest with the victor gambling on a slight edge in the District 5-AA race.
A packed stadium is expected for this contest that is being billed as the top game of the area. Reserved seat tickets went on sale early this week and were going fast. This will be homecoming for the Indians.
Coach Joe Youngblood reported Monday night to the Booster Club that all of the Pipers came out of the squeaker with Winters in good shape and should all be ready for Friday night.
Several important items of business will be presented at the meeting of the Hamlin Woman's Forum Monday. The meeting was changed from the scheduled date on Tuesday for the convenience of the members.
All members of all women's clubs are urged to attend the meeting. The future of the Harden Memorial Library will be discussed and decisions on securing a librarian and making repairs to the building will be made.

Three new officers will be elected to fill expired terms. The Woman's Forum was organized in 1956 and is responsible for the operation of the library which was organized at that time. Clubs that are members of the Forum are Beta Theta and Xi Gamma Pi chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Hamlin Garden Club, Woman's Literary Club, Business and Professional Women's Club and Jaycee-ettes.

alive. And, if you count back one billion hours, you'd be in the year 112,000 B.C.
But, this evening at 6 p.m., if you count back $1 billion dollars, in U. S. Government spending, you'd be at 10:30 last night.
Now, doesn't that help you understand what a billion is?

Like women's bathing suits, candy bars are getting skimpier and more expensive.
Take the Hershey bar, the granddaddy of chocolate confectionery. It costs twice as much as it did in 1950 and is not even half the size.
In the past nine months, the Hershey bar has shrunk from 1.35 ounces to 1.05 ounces, while the "common retail price" has remained at 20 cents. As late as 1965, a two-ounce Hershey bar was only a dime.
The culprit, of course, is the mounting cost of everything—for chocolate bars, especially the costs of cocoa and sugar. In 1971, the average New York spot price of cocoa beans grown in Ghana, the world's largest producer, was 27 cents a pound. It's now around $2.70 a pound. Anyone with a sweet tooth knows about sugar prices.
The effect of changes in price and size on Americans' taste for sweets is hard to measure. A recent Commerce Department survey showed consumption of candy increasing from 1975 to 1976, from 16.3 pounds for each man, woman and child to 16.7 pounds per person.
Around the turn of the century, Milton Hershey built a chocolate factory on a southeastern Pennsylvania cornfield, then a town called Hershey. Hershey started making chocolate in 1894, marketing both a 2-cent bar (nineteenths of an ounce) and a 3-cent bar (fifteen-sixteenths of an ounce) by 1908. Old records, at best sketchy, show a 5-cent, one-ounce bar sold in 1921.
In World War II, GIs carried Hershey bars like ammunition. It was the universal language of barter and for many European kids their first taste of chocolate.
In 1949, Hershey's 5-cent standard milk chocolate bar weighed an ounce. By May of 1968 it had shrunk to three quarters of an ounce. It was discontinued a year later.
A 10-cent, two-ounce bar was introduced in 1950 as a companion to the nickel bar. It bowed out at a skinny 1.26 ounces in 1974.
The 15-cent bar, weighing 1.4 ounces, was introduced in January of that year. It shrunk twice, being replaced by the 1.35-ounce, 20-cent bar three years later.

Hornets Move Into Win Column
With 14-0 Victory Over Pipers

The Aspermont Hornets scored twice in the first half here Friday night to win their first game of the season, 14-0. The win came at the expense of the defending champion Pipers who are still seeking their first district win this season. Both the Hornets and the Pipers are now 1-0 for the year.

The first Hornet touchdown came on a 71 yard pass early in the first period and the second score was on a 9-yard run by Steve Godfrey late in the second period. Godfrey was the Hornet's leading rusher with 96 yards in 22 carries.

While the statistics and turnovers were more even than the score, the Piper offense failed to penetrate the Hornet goal line and only managed to get inside the Aspermont 20 one time. This penetration came late in the third period, with the Pipers giving up the ball on the Hornet 19.

Workhorse Mike Hymer was the night's leading ball carrier as he carried the ball 29 times for the Pipers for a total of 104 yards.

Both teams gave up the ball three times on fumbles and the Pipers had two passes picked off while the Hornets had one. The Hornets had 200 yards in total offense while the Pipers could manage only 177 yards.

The Hornets took the opening kickoff and returned it to their own 25. They moved the ball out to mid-field before losing their first fumble with the Pipers recovering on the Aspermont 46.

Hamlin picked up a first down at the 34, but then stalled out with Hymer punting into the end zone.

Starting on their own 20, the Hornets gained a first down at the 31, then lost two yards before quarterback Jerry Davis connected with Alvin Johnson on a 71 yard pass and run combination that was good for the first score. The kick was blocked and the Hornets were ahead 6-0 with 7:20 left in the first period.

Following the kickoff, the Pipers had to start from their own 13 because of a penalty and drove to the Aspermont 30 before punting. The Pipers picked up three first downs in the drive with most of it coming on the running of Hymer.

The two teams exchanged fumbles at this point with Aspermont ending up with the ball on their own 39. This was followed by an exchange of punts with Hamlin getting the ball on their own seven. A pass from Todd Marshall to Tommy Maberry got the Pipers out to the 28, but three plays later the Pipers fumbled again.

Godfrey recovered the loose ball at the Hamlin 32 and after Johnson passed for 23 yards to Gerry McDowell, he scored from the nine. Godfrey was called upon again for the extra point try and went in over right tackle for the two points. The Hornets had a 14 point edge with 3:57 left in the first half.

The Pipers fumbled again following the kickoff at their own 31, but stopped the Hornets at the Hamlin 23. Following the Piper punt the two teams exchanged pass interceptions with the Hornets running out the first half clock.

The Hornets failed to gain a first following the second half kickoff and punted out to the Hamlin 33. Aided by a 15-yard penalty, the Pipers moved to the Aspermont 31 before giving up the ball. After gaining a first down, the Hornets were forced to punt again with Brett McCracken blocking it and the Pipers took over at the Aspermont 33.

The Hornets moved out to their own 45 before losing another fumble. But the Pipers returned the favor four plays later with the Hornets intercepting a Marshall pass at the Hornet 40.

After a couple of rounds of punt exchanges with neither team being able to pick up a first down, the Hornets took over on the Hamlin 43. With the help of a penalty, Aspermont moved down to the Hamlin 26 before giving up the ball with 25 seconds left on the clock. The Pipers moved out to mid-field in three plays before time ran out on them.

County Agent Urges Use of Soil Samples

Any farming operation requires planning, and this is particularly true when it comes to applying fertilizer. Fertilizer applications should be based on a soil test, and fall is a good time to take soil samples for testing, points out Kirby Clayton, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Containers and instructions for submitting soil samples are available at the County Extension office. Based on a soil test, a sound fertilization program can be developed for the coming crop year.

Such a program will be increasingly important in the months ahead. Under present economic conditions, low yields are not profitable, and fertilization, at least with nitrogen, is generally necessary for profitable yields. Yet, the need for each plant nutrient and its potential profitability should be closely evaluated, Clayton said.

For additional information on fertilizer use in Jones County, Clayton invites producers to review the 1976 and 1977 handbook of result demonstrations. Various fertilizer rates were used on different crops to determine the highest profit potential, and these studies merit close evaluation. With current high production costs, uncertainty about farm prices, and other risks in crop production, farmers must study their fertilizer needs more closely than ever to make sound management decisions, believes Clayton.

Col. Speir Pleads for Speed Limit Support

Austin—The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety today issued an appeal to Texas motorists to give better voluntary compliance to the 55 mile per hour speed limit on the state's highways.

Col. Wilson E. Speir said he is alarmed over the increasing percentage of drivers exceeding the speed limit, particularly in light of the increasing number of fatalities and major accidents in the state.

"From our own observations as well as surveys conducted by the Department of Highways and Public Transportation, it is indicated that the vast majority of vehicles on our roads are exceeding the legal speed limit of 55 MPH," he said.

"Meanwhile traffic fatalities are on the increase, showing an eight per cent rise over the same period last year. At last report traffic deaths have increased from 2,467 at this time last year to 2,675—an increase of 208 deaths.

"What's more, the percentage of increase in deaths is becoming greater with each passing week.

"The latest report indicates that some 74 per cent of motorists are exceeding 55 MPH. This compares to 69 per cent exceeding 55 during the calendar-quarter year ending December 1, 1976.

Speir noted that while the DPS enforcement effort has been increased tremendously—well over 100 per cent since the new speed law went into effect—shortage of highway patrol personnel makes the task extremely difficult when some three-fourths of the driving public is violating the speed law.

"We are therefore issuing this appeal to motorists in the hope they will realize that slower speeds will pay off in the saving of lives, suffering and money in the form of better gas mileage and insurance costs," he said, "in addition to extra wear and tear on vehicles."

Speir reported that there is an alarming increase of 50 per cent in deaths on the interstate system over last year, clearly indicating that excessive speed is a major factor in fatal accidents.

And he said the efforts of highway patrol troopers to remove dangerous drivers from the traffic stream will be continued.

"The ultimate solution to the problem of speeding above the limits on Texas highways will come only when the majority of Texas drivers accepts their responsibilities under the law," Speir added.

BY COUNTY AGENT— Tips On Storing Pecans

It would be a shame to lose your pecans now. They are hard to grow during hot, dry summers, like the one we just experienced. Proper storage is very important to retain their naturally good quality and taste.

Pecans are semi-perishable and unless properly cared for may become inedible due to mold, off flavor, discoloration or insect damage. These detrimental characteristics can be prevented if proper storage practices are employed. Several of the more important factors to consider include: adequate drying, proper packaging and refrigeration.

According to County Extension Agent Kirby Clayton, it is imperative to start with a high quality nut since proper storage conditions will not improve quality, only maintain it at or near post-harvest cured conditions.

High oil content and the fact that the oil is 93 percent unsaturated is one of the most important factors affecting the storability of pecans.

Nutritionists say that an unsaturated oil is healthier, but this type oil shortens the shelf life of pecan products because of increased susceptibility to rancidity.

Clayton says that homeowners should store pecans in a polyethylene bag, either in shell or shelled, and place them in the refrigerator or the deep freeze, depending on how long they want to store them. At room temperature the shelf life is four months in the shell and three months shelled. In the refrigerator the pecans will hold good quality for 19 months in the shell or 12 months shelled. Pecans can be held in the deep freeze near 0 degree for two years with very little adverse effect on the kernel quality.

It's true! This weekend—and every weekend between 11 p.m. Friday and 5 p.m. Sunday—you can place two Long Distance calls for practically the price of one weekday evening call, when you dial the 1+ way.

For example, a 10-minute call to someone a thousand miles away weekday evenings (5 p.m. to 11 p.m., Sunday-Friday) would cost you $2.44, plus tax. Which, you'll admit, isn't bad.

But for practically the same price, you could make two eight-minute calls over the same distance... any weekend.

It's almost like getting one call free!

So this weekend, enjoy a couple of Long Distance calls. And make three families happy!

Long Distance. What else is so nice for the price?

Neinda Philosopher Has Some Thoughts On Televising All the Sessions of Congress

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One examines the prospects of having Congress televised.

Dear editor:
I understand Congress is considering allowing its sessions to be televised but has postponed a vote on it till after the first of the year, on the grounds I suppose that a bill that's not worth postponing is not worth passing. Some Congressmen are violently opposed to having sessions televised, contending it'll damage Congress' image. My contention has been that it won't damage Congress but it might kill television.

I have read the Congressional Record, which prints every word spoken in the House every day, and I can tell you that with a script like that the TV audience will drop almost to zero. A fourth re-run of a movie that flopped would draw a bigger audience. It just takes too long for some Congressmen to say nothing. And Congress has so many complex parliamentary rules that by the time a member learns them all he's been there so long he's become chairman of a powerful committee and it's too late for the country to do anything about him. But there is a part of Congress that'd make good television fare. If you could get the cameras into the cloak rooms and the private offices of members, where the deals are made, the arms twisted, the votes swapped and the real business transacted, daytime soap operas would be in for some stiff competition.

Nonetheless it'd be interesting for a while at least to see Congress televised. There couldn't possibly be a single member as boring as Mr. and Mrs. Ramiro Perez of Rotan are parents of a son, Rodolfo Arturo, 7 lbs., 9 1/2 oz., born Oct. 20 at 10:26 p.m. Other children are Lisa, 11 and Ramiro Jr. 9. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hiego Huerta of Hobbs, N. M.

Howard Cosell on Monday night football. When Mr. Cosell says "I'll tell you one thing," get set for fifteen or twenty. There's nothing to the report, is there, that he's going to run for Congress?
Yours faithfully,
J.A.
